

SpinLab – The HHL Accelerator supports the growth of entrepreneurial and innovative teams who want to scale up their businesses. Located within Leipzig’s creative and inspiring Leipzig’s Cotton Mill (Leipziger Baumwollspinnerei), we provide access to infrastructure (co-working office space and technology), coaching and mentoring, as well as to our international network of successful business founders, established market players and leading investors.

To support our core team, we’re looking for a passionate person as

Online-Marketing- and Event-Manager/in (full-time; m/f) starting from September or October 2016.

We need extraordinary people for an extraordinary position at SpinLab.

If you want to work with young and innovative startups in a highly creative environment located at the famous SPINNEREI (Leipziger Baumwollspinnerei) we have the perfect offer! You should be an open-minded, friendly, communicative and reliable personality with an independent way of working. Passion and energy are your main drivers and you are interested to foster entrepreneurship in our region.

Your tasks:

- Coaching of startups and workshops in the field of online marketing (SEO/SEM/Content Marketing/Social Media)
- Organize events (many smaller ones, some bigger ones up to 300 people)
- Maintain and optimize our website (CMS: Contao) and communication/social media channels including printed documents
- Support during the selection process of new startups
- General support of our team and startups incl. office management

Your profile:

- Dedication & Passion! (!!!)
- Profound knowledge and first practical experience (working student, trainee, junior position) in the field of online marketing and willingness to grow in this field
- We don’t care about your degrees, but we want to see relevant projects and efforts you made
- Hands-on mentality
- Proficiency in German and English (both written and oral)
- Nice to have: experience with Adobe Photoshop & Indesign

We offer:

- An ambitious, demanding and interesting position
- A creative and international working environment in Leipzig
- Willingness to support on-the-job training and continuing education
- Flexible working time with performance-based wage

Please send your application till 10th of August to: jobs@spinlab.co
(German or English incl. application letter and CV)

For any questions please contact: Eric Weber